Dear Clerk Bradley,

May 25, 2020

I need your direct help in
Civil Action 2:17-CV-18.

United States Courts
Southern District of Texas
FILED

Here's the Situation

MAY 27 2020

David J. Bradley, Clerk of Court

I filed in the Corpus Christi Division, Civil Action 2:17-CV-18. Its a civil Action on discrimination, sex-stereotyping and breach of contract. The civil action covers equal protection for Transgenderes for Significant Relief under the Gibson/Collins case.

What's going on Now

The Texas Attorney General's Attorney Courtney Corbello when she was ordered to answer the writ / civil action. She took off to the 5th Circuit hollering, "I got immunity", official Immunity"

What I need

① There was in Aug 23, 2017 a Tel-conference with Mag. Judge Ellington and Texas Attorneys RHEA, Willey and Camiff. That made me do a amended Complaint, with the fact I wanted medical care and the suit was for an injunction only.

Q. Do you have any record of this Aug 23, 2017 Tel-conference?

Mag. Judge Ellington told Attorney Wiley I could ask for a injunction and the State was not immunity to a civil action for a injunction.

Texas attorney Wiley said, "Yes your honor she can ask for a injunction, we have no immunity against a injunction."

~

This State attorney Corbello is in the 5th Circuit wonder/and trying to find a Judge to sign a "STAY" Corbello got a one year stay while that Gibson/Collins case was in the 5th Circuit now she's trying to get another stay.

Clerk Brady,

I don't even know where to look — or where to ask you to look. It's not me doing this but Texas Attorney Corbello, that immunity was laid to rest in 2017, yet here she is bringing it up.

Any help will help
